6. WITHHOLDING ELECTION:

Please read the Notice of Federal Withholding Election on the bottom of this page prior to completing this section.

I have or will obtain legal and tax advice regarding receipt of the Death Benefit and hereby accept full and sole responsibility for payment of federal and state taxes which may be associated with this claim. Unless you check Option "A" below, "I DO NOT want to have Federal income tax withheld," we are required to withhold at least 10% of the taxable amount.

_____ A. I DO NOT want to have Federal income tax withheld.

_____ B. I DO want to have _____ % Federal income tax withheld (10% minimum).*

Even if you elect not to have Federal income tax withheld, you are liable for payment of Federal income tax on the taxable portion of the distribution. You also may be subject to tax penalties under the estimated tax payment rules if your payments of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not adequate.

*Note: If you elect federal withholding, state income tax withholding is mandatory in the following states: CA, GA, IA, ME, MA, NC, OK, OR, VT, and VA. Unless these states' laws require otherwise, or you request a different withholding amount by providing American General Life Insurance Company the applicable state form, we will withhold state income tax based on federal guidelines. In all other states with a state income tax, state income tax withholding is voluntary. However, you may be liable for payment of state income tax on the taxable portion of your distribution. State withholding forms are available through us by calling 1-800-901-7269, or by contacting your local state tax office.

7. TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER:

This section must be completed and signed by the Beneficiary identified on Page 1 of this form. Failure to do so may delay your request.

Please enter your taxpayer identification number in the appropriate box. For individuals and sole proprietors, this is your social security number. For other entities, it is your employer identification number. If you do not have a number, see IRS Publication 505.

NOTICE OF FEDERAL WITHHOLDING ELECTION

The distributions you receive from American General Life Insurance Company are subject to Federal income tax withholding unless you elect not to have withholding apply. Withholding will only apply to the portion of your distribution that is included in your income subject to Federal income tax. Thus, for example, there will be no withholding on the return of your nondeductible contributions to the contract.

You may elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution by marking Option A under the Withholding Election section on Page 2 of this form. If you do not mark Option A, Federal income tax will be withheld from the taxable portion of your distribution.

If you elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution or if you do not have enough Federal income tax withheld from your distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

Please complete and sign Pages 1 and 2 of this form. Failure to do so will delay your request.

FRAUD WARNING DISCLOSURE

In some states we are required to advise you of the following: Any person who knowingly intends to defraud or facilitates a fraud against an insurer by submitting an application or filing a false claim, or makes an incomplete or deceptive statement of a material fact, may be guilty of insurance fraud.

INSTRUCTIONS: ANNUITY CLAIMANT STATEMENT

1. Information outlined on Pages 1 and 2 must be submitted by the person claiming entitlement to the contract proceeds payable as a result of the death of the Annuitant or Owner. If the annuity is a non-tax qualified contract issued after January 18, 1985 and if death occurs before the Annuity Date, death of an Owner or Co-Owner requires a death claim action.
2. Certain restrictions apply to annuity contracts issued after January 18, 1985 and to tax qualified contracts in general. Refer to th policy for specific details.
3. Part or all of the proceeds paid from an annuity are taxable as ordinary income. You should consult with a competent tax advisor before submitting the claim for payment. Furthermore, there are certain time limits regarding a death claim settlement.
4. When proceeds are payable to a named beneficiary of legal age, the statement must be made by such beneficiary.
5. When proceeds are payable to the estate of the deceased, the statement must be made by an executor or administrator, a certificate of whose appointment must be furnished.
6. When proceeds are payable to a minor, the statement must be made by a legal guardian appointed by the court, and an official certificate of appointment must be furnished.
7. When a contract has been assigned, the statement must be made by the Assignee.
8. When proceeds are payable to a named beneficiary who is deceased, a copy of the death certificate must be furnished.
9. When proceeds are payable to "children" or others of a class, a sworn statement must be furnished giving the name and date of birth of each. If any have died, the statement must give the date and place of death, and must state whether they died unmarried, intestate, and / or without issue. A copy of each death certificate must be furnished.
